

COPYRIGHT CONDITIONS

The material submitted for presentation at an IFAC meeting (Congress, Symposium, Conference, Workshop) must be original, not published or being considered elsewhere. All papers accepted for presentation will appear in the Preprints of the meeting and will be distributed to the participants. Papers duly presented at the IFAC Congress, Symposia, Conferences and Workshops will be hosted online on the www.IFACPapersOnLine.net website. The presented papers will be further screened for possible publication in the IFAC Journals (Automatica, Control Engineering Practice, Annual Reviews in Control, Journal of Process Control, Engineering Applications of Artificial Intelligence, and Mechatronics), or in IFAC affiliated journals. All papers presented will be recorded as IFAC Publications

VENUE

Cracow, the former capital of Poland, was the coronation, residence and burial place of Polish kings. It is situated in the south of Poland on the Vistula River. Cracow was endowed with municipal rights in 1257 and it was Poland capital till 1609. In 1364, King Casimir the Great founded the Cracow Academy that, after Prague's, is the second oldest University in Central Europe. Over the centuries Cracow has remained an important center of culture and science.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

On behalf of the Programme Committee and Organising Committee we have a great pleasure to invite you to Cracow for the PDeS 2015 Conference. This event will be the 13th Conference of the series on Programmable Devices and Embedded Systems and unique opportunity to celebrate 20th anniversary of the conference. It is organized by the Institute of Electronics of the Silesian University of Technology (Poland) in cooperation with the University of Ostrava (Czech Republic) and the University of Brno (Czech Republic) since 1995. Since 1999 the PDeS Conference has been granted the high status of the IFAC Workshop. The IFAC Technical Committees: TC 3.1 on Computers for Control and TC 4.1 on Components and Technologies for Control are the event sponsors.

Many papers on programmable devices and embedded systems are presented at numerous conferences and workshops devoted to electronics and circuit theory. Nevertheless, except for PDeS, there is no workshop devoted solely to these particular topics. The 20 years of success of PDeS meetings gives us hope that the PDeS 2015 will be an excellent opportunity for academic researchers, users and vendors to meet. There will be a place to present the latest research results, share experiences and discuss problems in the field of programmable devices and embedded systems.

The PDeS papers are indexed by leading scientific data bases that are: Scopus, Thomson Reuters and IFAC Papers on Line. Authors of the best papers selected by the IPC are invited to publish extended version of their papers in international journals.
